

MORALITY/ETHICS

Good and bad are figured relative to purpose.

Out of the nature of God comes the purpose of God. Out of the purpose of God comes the creation by God, of which we are a part, including people in relationship. There is a fairly close fit between our nature and human morality, but the decisive issue is God's originating purpose.

Virgil Warren christir.org