

SOME EFFECTS OF CENTRALIZING THE INTERPERSONAL CATEGORY IN BIBLICAL-SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY: AN OUTLINE

Virgil Warren, PhD

Introduction

- A. Centralize
- B. Interpersonal
- C. Biblical-systematic theology
- D. Alternatives transcended

I. Bases for the Interpersonal Center

- A. The (inter)personal character of ultimate reality
 - 1. God's creatorship: Genesis 1:1; Acts 17:22-31; John 1:1-3; Colossians 1:14-20, etc.
 - 2. Trinitarian considerations: Matthew 3:16; John 14:16, etc.
- B. Statements about the gospel in personalized terms
 - 1. Preaching Christ: 8:35; 11:20; 17:18; Romans 16:25; Philippians 1:15-18 (cp. Acts 5:42)
 - 2. Receiving Christ: Colossians 2:6
 - 3. Learning Christ: Ephesians 4:20
 - 4. Knowing nothing but Christ: 1 Corinthians 2:2
 - 5. Christ as foundation: 1 Corinthians 3:10-15
 - 6. Central vocabulary: faith, grace, mercy, love, promise
- C. Arguments for the gospel in personalized terms
 - 1. Gamaliel's argument for the resurrection (Acts 5:33-42)
 - 2. Paul's argument for the resurrection (2 Corinthians 15:12-28)
- D. Observations on the Mosaic period
 - 1. David and the showbread: 1 Samuel 21:1-6; Mark 2:23-28
 - 2. Hezekiah and the Passover observance: 2 Chronicles 30:13-22
 - 3. Salvation by faith during the Mosaic period: Habakkuk 2:4; Galatians 3:8-14

4. “Moses is preached”: Acts 15:21

II. Effects of an Interpersonal Center

- A. Hermeneutics
- B. Representative doctrines*

- 1. Salvation
- 2. Atonement
- 3. Ethics
- 4. Anthropology
- 5. Pneumatology
- 6. Sanctification
- 7. Ordinances
- 8. Bibliology
- 9. Ecclesiology

III. Praxis

- A. Evangelism
- B. Fellowship and Christian unity
- C. Theological Interpretation

Conclusion

*Some implications of interpersonalism are worked out in What the Bible Says About Salvation (Joplin, MO: College Press, 1982) by this author.

christir.org