SECOND JOHN

Conversational Version

Salutation

1The Elder to the elect lady and her children that[pl] I really love—as does everybody that knows the truth—2because of the truth that's in us and with us forever. 3We'll have grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Jesus Christ[Messiah], the Son of the Father in truth and love. 2 Jn 1-3

Remaining in Truth and Love

4I was so happy to find your[sg] children living in the truth the Father commanded us. 5Now I urge you, lady—not as some new commandment but what we've had all along: love one another 6and so be living his way. 7Many deceivers have gone out who don't agree that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. They're deceivers and antichrist. 8Watch that you not lose what you've gained, but receive a full reward. 9Anybody that goes out on his own and doesn't stay in Christ's teaching doesn't have God. The one that stays in his teaching has both the Father and the Son. 10If a person doesn't bring that teaching, don't invite him into your house or greet him. 11Whoever greets him shares in his evil work. 2 Jn 4-11

Farewell

12I have lots to tell you[pl] but not in writing. I hope to speak to you in person to make your joy complete.

13The children of your elect sister say hello. 2 Jn 12-13
