who kept the thresholds of the tent like their ancestors had done over the entrance to the camp of Yahveh. [20]Phinehas Ben-Eleazar ruled over them previously; Yahveh was with him. [21]Zechariah Ben-Meshelemiah was gatekeeper at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. [22]There were 212 chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds. They were enrolled by genealogy in their villages, men that David and Samuel the seer appointed in their office of trust. [23]They and their descendants guarded the gates of Yahveh's Temple—when it was a tabernacle—[24]on all four sides. [25]Their relatives in their villages were to come in every seven days to be with them. [26]The four chief gatekeepers (Levites) were in an office of trust over the rooms and treasuries in God's Temple. [27]They spent the night around God's Temple, because they were responsible for guarding them. They were responsible for opening the Temple each morning.

[28]Some of them were responsible for the utensils for service. They counted them when they brought them in and took them out. [29]Some were appointed to oversee the furniture and utensils for the sanctuary, the fine flour, the wine, oil, frankincense, and spices. [30]Some descendants of the priests mixed the spices. [31]Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was responsible for what was baked in pans. [32]Some relatives of the Kohathites prepared the showbread every Sabbath. 1 Ch 9:17-32

1 Ch 9:39-44

The Death of Saul and His Sons

10:[1]The Philistines attacked Israel, and they fled and fell dead on Mount Gilboa. [2]The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons and struck down his sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shua. [3]The battle grew intense against Saul, and the archers wounded him. [4]He told his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through so these uncircumcised Philistines don't come and torture me." But his armor bearer was too afraid to do it; so Saul took his sword and fell on it. [5]When his armor bearer saw he was dead, he fell on his sword too. [6]So Saul's whole dynasty died together.

[7]When the Israelites in the valley saw they'd fled and Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled; the Philistines came and lived in them. [8]The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons. [9]They stripped him, took his head and armor, and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and the people. [10]They put his armor in the temple of their gods and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon. [11]When Jabesh-gilead heard what they'd done to Saul, [12]brave men got up and took the bodies of Saul and his sons, buried their bones under the terebinth tree in Jabesh, and fasted for a week.

[13]So Saul died for his trespass against Yahveh [14]and because he inquired from a medium instead of Yahveh. He killed him and turned the kingdom over to David. 1 Ch 10:1-14

David Anointed King

11:[1]Then Israel gathered to David in Hebron,

> "We're your flesh and bone. [2]When Saul was king, you led out and brought in Israel. Yahveh your God said you would shepherd his people and be their leader."

[3]The elders in Israel came to him, and he made a treaty with them in Yahveh's presence. They anointed him king according to Yahveh's message through Samuel.

[4]Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (Jebus). The Jebusites, natives in the land, lived there. [5]They told David, "You won't get in here"; but he captured the fortress of Zion (The City of David). [6]He had said, "Whoever strikes down the Jebusites first will be general of the army*."* Joab Ben-Zeruiah went up first, so he became the general. [7]David lived in the fortress; so they called it The City of David. [8]He built the city all around from the Millo to the surrounding area, and Joab repaired the rest of Jerusalem. [9]David became greater and greater because Yahveh was with him. 1 Ch 11:1-9

David's Mighty Men

[10]These are David's leading powerful warriors, who greatly supported him in his kingdom, along with all Israel, in making him king. [11]They were Jashobeam son of a Hachmonite, chief of the 30. He killed 300 men with his spear at one time. [12]After him was Eleazar Ben-Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three powerful men. [13]He was with David at Pasdammim when the Philistines converged there for battle. There was a barley field, and the people were fleeing from the Philistines. [14]They took their stand in the middle of the plot, defended it, and struck down the Philistines. Yahveh gave them a great victory.

[15]Three of the 30 chief men went down to the rock to David into the cave near Adullam while the Philistine army was camping in the Valley of Rephaim. [16]Davd was in the stronghold while the Philistine garrison was in Bethlehem. [17]David was thirsty and said*, "Oh that somebody* would give me a drink from the well by the gate at Bethlehem!" 18The three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the well at Bethlehem and took it to David. But he wouldn't drink it; he poured it out to Yahveh. 19"In the presence of my God, I can't do that. Should I, in effect, drink these men's blood who risked their lives to bring it?"* Those were exploits the three powerful men did. 1 Ch 11:10-19

20Abishai, Joab's brother, was leader of the 30. He killed 300 with a spear; he had a reputation as well as the 30. 21Of the three in the second rank, he had the greatest honor and became their commander. But he didn't measure up to the three.

22Benaiah Ben-Jehoiada, son of a fearless warrior from Kabzeel, powerful in deeds, struck down the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day. 23He killed an Egyptian that was 7ft 6. The Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's beam, but Benaiah went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from him and killed him with it. 24-25Benaiah was renowned among the 30, but he didn't measure up to the three. David appointed him over his guard. 1 Ch 11:20-25

26The elite soldiers in the armies were Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan Ben-Dodo from Bethlehem, 27Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, 28Ira Ben-Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, 29Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, 30Maharai the Netophathite, Heled Ben-Baanah the Netophathite, 31Ithai Ben-Ribai from Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, 32Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, 33Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, 34the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan Ben-Shagee the Hararite, 35Ahiam Ben-Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal Ben-Ur, 36Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, 37Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai Ben-Ezbai, 38Joel brother of Nathan, Mibhar Ben-Hagri, 39Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer for Joab Ben-Zeruiah, 40Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, 41Uriah the Hittite, Zabad Ben-Ahlai; 42Adina Ben-Shiza the Reubenite, a chief in Reuben and 30 with him; 43Hanan Ben-Maacah and Joshaphat the Mithnite, 44Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham the Aroerite, 45Jediael Ben-Shimri and Joha his brother, the Tizite; 46Eliel the Mahavite and Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite; 47Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite. 1 Ch 11:26-47

Warriors Join David

12:1 These are men that came over to David at Ziklag, while he still couldn't move around freely because of Saul. They were among the elite soldiers that helped him during war. 2They used bows. With either hand they could sling stones and shoot arrows. They were Saul's relatives from Benjamin. 3The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth; Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite; 4Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, an elite soldier among the 30 and a leader over them. Then came Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite, [5]Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite; [6]Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, the Korahites; [7]Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jerobam of Gedor.

[8]From Gad, brave soldiers came over to David in the stronghold in the open country. They were men trained in war, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like lions' faces. They were as fast as gazelles on the mountains. [9]Numbered 1-11, they were Ezer, Obadiah, Eliab, [10]Mishmannah, Jeremiah, [11]Attai, Eliel, [12]Johanan, Elzabad, [13]Jeremiah, and Machbannai. [14]They were commanders in the army. The least was worth 100; the best was worth 1,000. [15]They crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was flooding and put to flight everybody in the valleys to the east and the west. 1 Ch 12:1-15

[16]Then some men from Benjamin and Judah came to David's stronghold. [17]He went out to meet them,

> "If you come peacefully to help me, my heart will be with yours. But if you've come to betray me to my adversaries, since I haven't done anything wrong, may the God of our ancestors look at it and decide."

[18]The Spirit came on Amasai, chief of the 30,

> "We're yours, David;
> we're with you, Ben-Jesse!
> Peace, peace to you,
> and peace to the One that helps you.
> Indeed, your God helps you!"

David accepted them and made them captains of the band. 1 Ch 12:16-18

[19]From Manasseh also some came over to David when he was going with the Philistines to fight Saul. (But he didn't end up helping them, because the lords of the Philistines conferred and sent him away, "He might desert to his Saul and turn on us.") [20]As he was going to Ziklag, these came over to him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, commanders of thousands in Manasseh. [21]They helped him against the bands of raiders, because they were fearless soldiers and commanders in the army. [22]Daily, men kept coming over to help David, till there was a large army like God's army.

[23]These are the divisions of armed troops that came to David in Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him like Yahveh said:

[24]from Judah: 6,800 armed troops that carried shield and spear;

[25]from Simeon: 7,100 fearless soldiers;

[26]from Levi: 4,600;

[27]from Jehoiada, leader of Aaron's house: 3,700;

[28]and Zadok, a fearless young soldier, of his family: 22 captains;

[29]from Benjamin: 3,000 of Saul's relatives, the greater part previously allied with Saul's house.

[30]from Ephraim: 20,800 fearless soldiers, famous in their families;

[31]from the Manasseh half-tribe: 18,000 men picked by name to make David king;

[32]from Issachar: 200 chiefs that understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do; with their relatives at their command;

[33]from Zebulun: 50,000 seasoned troops, ready for battle and equipped with all kinds of weapons; who helped David wholeheartedly.

[34]from Naphtali: 1,000 captains and 37,000 that carried shield and spear;

[35]from Dan: 28,600 equipped for battle;

[36]from Asher: 40,000 seasoned troops ready for battle;

[37]from beyond the Jordan—Reuben, Gad, and the Manasseh half-tribe: 120,000 armed with all kinds of weapons. 1 Ch 12:19-37

[38]These battle-ready men came to Hebron fully intending to make David king over all Israel. The rest in Israel were also intent on making him king. [39]They were there with him three days, eating and drinking, because their relatives had made preparations for them. [40]People nearby and as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen—great amounts of cakes, fig cakes and bunches of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep. There was happiness in Israel. 1 Ch 12:38-40

The Ark Brought from Kiriath-Jearim

13:[1]Then David consulted with every commander of thousands and hundreds, [2]and told the whole assembly,

> "If it seems good to you and if Yahveh our God wills, let's send around to our relatives that are still in Israel, as well as to the priests and Levites that are with them in their towns and pastures, to have them meet with us. [3]Let's bring the Ark back. We neglected it in Saul's time."

[4]The assembly agreed because it seemed right to them. [5]He brought Israel together from the Shihor in Egypt to Lebo-hamath, to bring God's Ark from Kiriath-jearim. [6]He and all Israel went up to Baalah (Kiriath-jearim) on the edge of Judah to bring up God's Ark, which wears the name Yahveh, who is enthroned between the cherubs. [7]They hauled the Ark on a new cart from Abinadab's house; Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. [8]David and all Israel were celebrating to God with all their energy—with songs and lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

[9]When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon/Nachon, Uzza reached out to steady the Ark, because the oxen stumbled. [10]Yahveh's anger burned against him, so he struck him down, and he died there in front of God. [11]David was mad because Yahveh "lashed out against Uzza," and has called the place Perez-uzza ever since. [12]David was afraid of God that day, "How can I bring the Ark home to me?" [13]So he didn't take it to The City of David but to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite nearby. [14]It stayed with his family for three months, and Yahveh blessed them and everybody he had. 1 Ch 13:1-14

David's Wives and Children

14:[1]Hiram, king of Tyre, sent ambassadors to David with cedar trees, masons, and carpenters, to build him a palace. [2]David saw that Yahveh had made him secure as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly regarded for Israel's sake. [3]He took more wives at Jerusalem and had more sons and daughters. [4]His children born in Jerusalem were Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, [5]Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, [6]Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, [7]Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet. 1 Ch 14:1-7

Philistines Defeated

[8]When the Philistines heard they'd anointed David king over all Israel, they went up to look for him. He heard about it and went out against them. [9]They'd made a raid in the Valley of Rephaim. [10]David asked God, "Should I attack the Philistines? Will you deliver them to me?" Yahveh said, "Yes, go on up." [11]They went up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them. He said, "God has used me to 'break through' my enemies like a flash flood"; so they named the place Baal-perazim. [12]The Philistines abandoned their gods there; David had them burned.

[13]The Philistines made another raid in the valley. [14]David asked God again, and he said,

> "Don't attack them head on. Circle around behind them and come at them across from the balsam trees. [15]When you hear marching in the tops of the balsam trees, attack. God will have gone out ahead of you to strike their army."

[16]David did that, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer. [17]His fame went out to all the countries, and Yahveh made them afraid of him. 1 Ch 14:8-17

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15:[1]David built houses for himself in The City of David and prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it. [2]He said, "Don't anybody carry the Ark but Levites. Yahveh chose them to carry it and serve him permanently." [3]He gathered Israel to Jerusalem to bring the Ark up to the place he'd prepared. [4]He gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

[5]from the descendants of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his relatives;

[6]from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the chief and 220 of his relatives;

[7]from the descendants of Gershom, Joel the chief and 130 of his relatives;

[8]from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief and 200 of his relatives;

[9]from the descendants of Hebron, Eliel the chief and 80 of his relatives;

[10]from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief and 112 of his relatives.
[11]David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests and for the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, > [12]"You're heads of families among the Levites. Consecrate yourselves and your relatives so you can bring the Ark up to the place I've prepared. [13]You didn't carry it the first time, so Yahveh lashed out on us; we didn't look to him according to the ordinance."

[14]The priests and Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the Ark. [15]The Levites carried it on their shoulders, with the poles on it like Moses had commanded by Yahveh's message.

[16]David told the chiefs among the Levites to appoint their relatives the singers and the ones with musical instruments—harps, lyres, loud cymbals—to make joyful music. [17]The Levites appointed Heman Ben-Joel and his relatives, Asaph Ben-Berechiah, and Ethan Ben-Kushaiah from the descendants of Merari their relatives. [18]The Levites appointed with them their relatives of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel. [19]The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to sound loud bronze cymbals. [20]Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth. [21]Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to lead with lyres pitched to The Sheminith. [22]Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was in charge of the singing. He taught singing because he was good at it. [23]Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the Ark. [24]Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests blew bugles ahead of the Ark. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also gatekeepers for the Ark. 1 Ch 15:16-24

[25]David, with the elders in Israel and the commanders of thousands, went to bring up the Ark from Obed-edom's house with joy. [26]Because God was helping the Levites that were carrying the Ark, they sacrificed 7 bulls and 7 rams. [27]David dressed in a fine linen robe with the Levites that were carrying the Ark, the singers, and Chenaniah, who led the singing. David also wore a linen ephod. [28]Israel brought up the Ark with shouting, blowing rams' horns and trumpets, crashing cymbals, and playing harps and lyres. [29]When the Ark came to The City of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked out the window and saw King David dancing and celebrating; and she despised him. 1 Ch 15:25-29

16[:1]They put the Ark in the tent David had pitched for it and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to God. [2]When David had finished offering them, he blessed the people in Yahveh's name. [3]To every man and woman in Israel, he passed out a loaf of bread, a helping of meat, and a raisin cake.

[4]He appointed some Levites to serve at the Ark—to celebrate, thank, and praise Yahveh God of Israel: [5]Asaph the chief, second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel with musical instruments—harps and lyres. Asaph played the loud cymbals; [6]Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests blew bugles constantly in front of the Ark.

[7]That day David first assigned Asaph and his relatives to give thanks to Yahveh.

1 Ch 16:1-7

David's Song of Thanks

[8]Thank Yahveh; call on him;
tell the nations what he's done.
[9]Sing to him, sing praises to him;
talk about his wonderful works.
[10]Take pride in his holy name;
let the people that look to him be happy.
[11]Look to Yahveh and his strength;
look to him continually.
[12]Remember the wonderful things he's done,
his miracles and the judgments he's spoken, [13]descendants of Israel his servant,
sons of Jacob his chosen ones. 1 Ch 16:8-13

[14]He's Yahveh our God;
his judgments are all over the world.
[15]Remember his covenant forever,
the message he commanded to a thousand generations, [16]his covenant with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac.
[17]He confirmed it to Jacob as a statute,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
[18]"I'll give you Canaan for an inheritance."
[19]When they were just a few with temporary residents included, [20]they wandered about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another. 1 Ch 16:14-20 [21]He didn't let anybody oppress them;
he reproved kings for their sakes:
[22]"Don't touch my anointed ones;
don't harm my prophets."
[23]Sing to Yahveh, all the earth;
tell the good news about his salvation every day.

24Tell about his glory the world over, his wonderful deeds among the nations.
25Yahveh is great, and deserves great praise;
he's to be feared more than all other gods.
26The people's gods are idols,
but Yahveh made the sky.
27Honor and majesty are with him;
strength and joy belong to him. 1 Ch 16:21-27
28Attribute to Yahveh, families of the nations, attribute to him glory and strength.
29Atribute to Yahveh the glory that's due him;
bring him an offering;
worship him in holy array.
30Tremble in his presence, all the earth;
yes, the world stands firm; it won't be moved.
31Let the sky be happy and the earth celebrate;
let them say among the nations, "Yahveh reigns!"
32Let the sea roar and everything that fills it;
let the field celebrate and everything in it. 1 Ch 16:28-32 33Then the trees in the forest will sing for joy, because Yahveh's coming to judge the world.
34Give thanks to Yahveh because he's good;
his love endures forever.
35Then say, "Save us, our saving God;
gather us and deliver us from the nations to give thanks to your holy name and take pride in praising you."
36Bless Yahveh God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

Then the people said "Amen" and praised Yahveh. 1 Ch 16:33-36

37He left Asaph and his relatives at the Ark to serve continually as each day's work required. 38He left* Obed-edom with his 68 relatives and Hosah with the son of Jeduthun as gatekeepers. 39He left Zadok the priest and his relatives at the Tabernacle in the high place at Gibeon 40to offer burnt offerings every morning and evening, according to the law Yahveh commanded Israel. 41With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest that were designated by name to give thanks to Yahveh because his love endures forever. 42With them were Heman and

Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for the ones that sounded out loud with instruments for the songs of God and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate. [43]Then the people left for home, and David went back to bless his household. 1 Ch 16:37-43

The LORD's Covenant with David

17:[1]While David was living in his palace, he told Nathan the prophet, "I'm living in a cedar palace, but Yahveh's Ark is under curtains."

[2]Nathan said, "Do what's in your mind. God is with you."

[3]That same night, the message from God came to him,

> [4]"Go tell my servant David, 'Yahveh says, "You're not to build me a temple. [5]I haven't lived in a temple since I brought Israel up. I've gone from tent to tent and place to place. [6]In all the places where I've lived with Israel, have I asked any judge that I've commanded to shepherd my people why he hasn't built me a cedar temple?"' [7]Tell David, 'Yahveh of hosts says, "I took you out of the pasture from behind sheep and made you a leader over Israel. [8]I've been with you wherever you've gone and removed your enemies from you. I'll make you as famous as anyone that's ever lived in the world. [9]I'll appoint you a place for my people, and plant them so they won't have to move anymore. Sinful people won't lay waste to them like they did before, [10]including the time I put judges over them. I'll subdue your enemies and build you a dynasty. [11]When your life's over and you've gone to your ancestors, I'll set up one of your sons and secure his throne permanently. [12]He'll build me a temple. [13]I'll be his father, and he'll be my son. I won't take my enduring love away from him like I did with your predecessor. [14]I'll settle him in my house and kingdom permanently."'" 1 Ch 17:1-14

[15]Nathan told David everything in his vision.

David's Prayer

[16]Then David went in and sat in Yahveh's presence,

> "Who am I, Yahveh God, and what's my family that you've brought me this far? [17]It's a small thing for you, but you've talked about my dynasty for a long time to come and regarded me by the standard for men of high degree. [18]What more can I say about the honor you've put on me? You know me. [19]For my sake and from your own heart, you've done these great things and made them known. [20]Nobody's like you; there's no God besides you. From everything we've heard, [21]what nation is like Israel? You went to redeem them out of Egypt to make a name for yourself with great and terrifying acts, in driving out nations ahead of your people. [22]You made Israel your people permanently and became their God.

23*Now make permanent your promise about me and my dynasty.* 24Establish your name and make it great forever.* 25-26It's a good thing that you've revealed to me that you'll build a dynasty for me. That's encouraged me to pray to you.* 27It has pleased you to bless my family so it will continue permanently. You've blessed it forever."* 1 Ch 17:15-27

David's Military Victories

18:1 After that, David defeated the Philistines and took Gath and its surrounding towns. 2He defeated Moab and they brought tribute. 3He defeated Hadadezer, king of Zobah, as far as Hamath and secured his rule all the way to the Euphrates River. 4He took 1,000 chariots, 7,000 cavalry, and 20,000 foot soldiers. He hamstrung the chariot horses but reserved enough for 100 chariots.

5When the Arameans from Damascus came to help Hadadezer, David killed 22,000 of them. 6He put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans brought tribute. 7He took the gold shields that Hadadezer's officers carried and brought them to Jerusalem. 8From Tibhath and Cun, towns of Hadadezer, he took a large amount of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze sea, pillars, and bronze utensils. 1 Ch 18:1-8

9Tou/Toi, king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated Hadadezer's whole army. 10He sent his son Hadoram to greet him and bless him for it. Hadoram brought all kinds of gold, silver, and bronze articles. 11David dedicated them to Yahveh with the silver and gold he'd carried off from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, Philistines, and Amalek.

12In addition, Abishai Ben-Zeruiah defeated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. 13He put garrisons in Edom, and the Edomites served him. Yahveh helped him wherever he went.

14David ruled Israel and administered justice and goodness for his people.

15Joab Ben-Zeruiah was over the army;
Jehoshaphat Ben-Ahilud was recorder;
16Zadok Ben-Ahitub and Abimelech Ben-Abiathar were priests;
Shavsha was secretary;
17Benaiah Ben-Jehoiada was captain of David's bodyguard;
David's sons were chiefs at his side. 1 Ch 18:9-17

David Defeats the Ammonites and Syrians

19:1 After this, Nahash, king of the Ammonites, died and his son became king. 2David said, "I'll be kind to Hanun because his father was kind to me." He sent ambassadors to console him about his father. 3But the officials in Ammon told Hanun, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending ambassadors to comfort you? Haven't they come to spy out the land to overthrow it*?"* Hanun took David's ambassadors and shaved them, cut off their clothes in the middle as high as their hips, and sent them away. 5Some people came and told David about the men. He sent to meet them because they were greatly humiliated. He told them to stay in Jericho till their beards grew back; then come home.

6When the Ammonites saw they'd been offensive to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 37¾ tons [1,000 talents] of silver to hire chariots and cavalry from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah and Zobah. 7They hired 32,000 chariots, the king of Maacah, and his soldiers. They camped by Medeba. The Ammonites gathered from their towns and came to battle. 8When David heard it, he sent Joab and the whole army, the strongest soldiers. 9The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to the city. The kings that had come were by themselves in the field. 1 Ch 19:1-9

10When Joab saw that the battle was set against him in front and behind, he selected elite soldiers and arrayed them against the Arameans. 11The rest he placed under his brother Abishai, and they arrayed themselves against the Ammonites. 12He said,

> "If the Arameans are too strong for me, you help me. If the Ammonites are too strong for you, I'll help you. 13Be strong; let's show ourselves courageous for our people and the towns of our God. May Yahveh do what seems good to him."*

14Joab and his troops engaged the Arameans, and they fled. 15When the Ammonites saw the Arameans flee, they retreated from Abishai into the city. Then Joab made a trip to Jerusalem.

16When the Arameans saw Israel had defeated them, they sent ambassadors to bring out the Arameans from the other side of the River with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them. 17When David heard it, he mustered Israel, crossed the Jordan, and came on them. He drew up in formation against them, and they fought him. 18They fled, and he killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and put Shophach to death. 19When Hadadezer's vassals saw Israel had defeated them, they surrendered and served David. The Arameans weren't willing to help the Ammonites anymore. 1 Ch 19:10-19

The Capture of Rabbah

20:1In the spring, when kings go to war, Joab led out the army and ravaged the country of the Ammonites and laid siege to Rabbah. David stayed in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and overthrew it. 2Then David went to Rabbah and took the crown off their king's head, and found that it weighed 75½ lbs [a talent] of gold, and was set with precious stones. They placed it on David's head, and he brought out a really large amount of spoil from the city. 3He brought the people out, and cut them with saws, sharp instruments, and axes. He did that to all the Ammonite towns. Then he and the people came back to Jerusalem.

4About this time, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, a descendant of the giants, and they were subdued. 5There was war with the Philistines again, and Elhanan Ben-Jair killed Lahmi brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. [6]Another time there was war at Gath, where there was a huge man with six digits on each hand and foot. He had descended from the giants too. [7]When he taunted Israel, Jonathan, son of David's brother Shimea, killed him. [8]Those three descended from the giants in Gath that David and his warriors killed. 1 Ch 20:1-8

David's Ill-Advised Census

21:[1]Satan stood up against Israel and tempted David to take a census. [2]David told Joab and the commanders of the troops,

> "Go count Israel from Dan to Beersheba and bring me the results so I can know how many there are."

[3]Joab said, "May Yahveh add to his people 100 times as many as they are! But my lord the king, aren't they all serving you? Why do you want to know this? Why bring guilt on Israel?"

[4]But the king's word prevailed. So Joab went all over Israel and came back to Jerusalem. [5]He gave David the census number: 1,100,000 swordsmen in Israel and 470,000 in Judah. [6]He didn't count Levi and Benjamin because he abhorred the king's command. [7]God was displeased with this thing, so he struck Israel. 1 Ch 21:1-7

[8]David said to God, "I've committed an awful sin. Please take it away. I've done something really foolish."

[9]Yahveh told Gad, David's seer, [10]"Tell David,

> 'Yahveh says [11]to take [12]either three years of famine, three months of being swept away by your enemies' sword, or three days of the sword of Yahveh when his angel destroys throughout Israel.' What should I report to the One that sent me?" 1 Ch 21:8-12

[13]David told Gad, "I'm in great distress. I'll cast myself on Yahveh's mercy because it's so great. Don't let me fall into human hands." [14]Yahveh sent a plague on Israel; 70,000 people died. [15]He sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem; but as he was about to do it, he looked and was sad over the catastrophe. He told the destroying angel, "That's enough; relax your hand." The angel was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan/Araunah the Jebusite. [16]David looked up and saw him standing between earth and sky with his sword held out over Jerusalem. David and the elders, covered with burlap, fell on their faces. [17]He told God, "I'm the one that sinned. What have these sheep done? Yahveh my God, please plague me and my father's house, not your people." 1 Ch 21:13-17

David Builds an Altar

18Then the angel of Yahveh had Gad tell David to build an altar on Ornan's/Araunah's threshing floor. 19David went up. 20Ornan*/Araunah turned and saw the angel, and his four sons hid. He was threshing wheat. 21As David came to him, he left the threshing floor and prostrated himself. 22David told him, "Sell me this threshing floor so I can build an altar on it. Give it to me at full price so God will restrain the plague."

23*Ornan*/Araunah said,

> "Take it and do what seems good. I'll give the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for wood, the wheat for the grain offering—all of it."

24But King David said, "I won't take what's yours for Yahveh or offer a burnt offering that doesn't cost me anything." 25He paid him 15 lbs 600 shekels of gold for the site. 26He built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called to Yahveh, and he answered him with fire from the sky on the altar. 27Yahveh told the angel to sheath his sword.

28When David saw that Yahveh had answered him, he offered sacrifice there, 29because the Tabernacle and altar that Moses made were in the countryside at Gibeon. 30But David couldn't go to it to ask God because the angel's sword terrified him. 22:1David said, "This is the house of Yahveh God and the altar of burnt offering for Israel." 1 Ch 21:18-22:1

David's Preparations for the Temple

2David issued an order to gather the foreigners in Israel and set stonecutters to dress stones for God's Temple. 3He provided large stores of iron for making nails for the doors in the gates and for clamps, more bronze than could be weighed, 4and cedar logs without number. The Sidonians and Tyrians brought him large supplies of cedar timber. 5He said,

> "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and Yahveh's Temple will be magnificent, famous, and glorious all over the world. I'll stockpile materials for it."

David gathered lots of material for it before he died. 1 Ch 22:2-5

6Then he called Solomon and charged him to build a temple for Yahveh God of Israel,

> 7"Son, I intended to build a temple for Yahveh,* 8but his message came to me, 'You won't build me a temple; you've shed so much blood and fought great wars.* 9You'll have a son that's not a military figure. I'll give him rest from his enemies everywhere. His name will be Solomon because I'll give Israel 'peace' and quiet during his life.* 10He'll build a temple for me. He'll be my son, and I'll be his father. I'll make his kingdom permanently secure.'* 11Yahveh be with you so you can succeed at building it.* 12May he give you with discretion and intelligence, and give you charge over Israel so you can keep his Law.* 13You'll prosper if you observe carefully the statutes and ordinances he commanded Moses. Be strong and courageous; don't be afraid or intimidated.* 14I've taken great pains to* stockpile materials: 3775 tons [100,000 talents] of gold, 37,750 tons [1,000,000 talents] of silver, bronze and iron past weighing, timber, and stone. You can add to that.

15*You have lots of stonecutters, stone masons, and carpenters skilled in all kinds of work.* 16There's no limit to the gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Get started. Yahveh be with you."* 1 Ch 22:6-16

17He directed Israel's leaders to help Solomon,

18*"Isn't Yahveh with you? Hasn't he given you rest in every direction? He's delivered to you the nations in the land, and it's under control.* 19Set your heart and soul to look to him. Build his sanctuary so you can bring the Ark and God's holy articles into it."* 1 Ch 22:17-19

Duties of Levites

23:1 When David got old, he appointed Solomon king over Israel. 2He gathered the leaders with the priests and Levites. 3The Levites 30 years old and up numbered 38,000. 4Of these, 24,000 oversaw the work, 6,000 were officers and judges, 54,000 were gatekeepers, and 4,000 praised Yahveh with instruments David made for that purpose. 6He divided them according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 1 Ch 23:1-6

7The sons of Gershon were Ladan and Shimei.

8Three sons of Ladan were Jehiel the oldest, Jetham, and Joel.

9Three sons of Shimei were Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran.

These were the heads of families in Ladan/Libni.

10-11 The sons of Shimei were Jahath, first; Zina/Zizah, second. Jeush and Beriah didn't have very many sons, so they were all counted as one family. 1 Ch 23:7-11

12The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

13The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses.

Aaron and his sons were set apart permanently to sanctify Yahveh as most holy, to burn incense to him, to perform service to him, and to bless in his name.

14The sons of Moses, the man of God, were included in the tribe of Levi.

15The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16The son of Gershom was Shebuel the chief.

17The only son of Eliezer was Rehabiah.

Rehabiah had lots of sons.

18The son of Izhar was Shelomith the chief.

19The sons of Hebron were Jeriah, first; then Amariah, then Jahaziel, then Jekameam.

20The sons of Uzziel were Micah, first, then Isshiah.

21The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

[22]Eleazar died and had only daughters, so their cousins, Kish's sons, married them.

[23]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth. 1 Ch 23:12-23

[24]Those were Levi's descendants by heads of families as counted in their census. They served in Yahveh's Temple from 20 years old and up. [25]David said, "Yahveh God of Israel has given his people rest, and he lives in Jerusalem permanently. [26]The Levites won't need to carry the Tabernacle and the utensils for its service." [27]By David's last words, Levi's descendants were counted from 20 years old and up. [28]They were to assist Aaron's descendants with the service in the courts and rooms in Yahveh's Temple. They were to purify the holy things [29]and help with the showbread, the fine flour for grain offerings, wafers without yeast, what's baked in the pan, or what's well-mixed, and all measures of volume and size. [30]They were to stand each morning and evening to thank and praise Yahveh. [31]They offered burnt offerings on Sabbaths, new moons, and scheduled festivals in the number set by the Law. [32]They maintained the Tent of Meeting and the Holy Place and helped Aaron's descendants with the service in Yahveh's house. 1 Ch 23:24-32

Duties of Priests

24:1*These were* the divisions of Aaron's descendants. His sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. [2]But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they didn't have any sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests. [3]David—with Zadok from Eleazar's descendants and Ahimelech from Ithamar's descendants—divided them by their offices for their service. [4]Since there were more chief men descended from Eleazar than from Ithamar, they divided them into 16 heads descended from Eleazar and 8 from Ithamar. [5]They divided them alike by lot because they were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God. [6]Shemaiah Ben-Nethanel the secretary from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech Ben-Abiathar, and the heads of the families among the priests and Levites—one family taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar. 1 Ch 24:1-6

[7]The first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,
[8]the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,
[9]the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,
[10]the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah,
[11]the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah,
[12]the eleventh for Eliashib, twelfth for Jakim,
[13]the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab, [14]the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,
[15]the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzez,

[16]the nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Jehezkel, [17]the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul,
[18]the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-fourth for Maaziah.
[19]Those were their officers for ministry when they came to Yahveh's Temple according to the ordinance Aaron their ancestor gave them by Yahveh God's command. 1 Ch 24:7-19

[20]Now about the rest of the descendants of Levi:
from the descendants of Amram, Shubael;
from the descendants of Shubael, Jehdeiah.
[21]from Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief.
[22]from the Izharites, Shelomoth;
from the descendants of Shelomoth, Jahath.
[23]the descendants of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, Jekameam fourth. 1 Ch 24:20-23

[24]the descendants of Uzziel, Micah;
from the descendants of Micah, Shamir.
[25]the brother of Micah, Isshiah;
from the descendants of Isshiah, Zechariah.
[26]the descendants of Merari: Mahli and Mushi.
the descendants of Jaaziah: Beno.
[27]the descendants of Merari: by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.
[28]by Mahli: Eleazar, who didn't have any sons.
[29]by Kish, the descendants of Kish: Jerahmeel.
[30]the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.
Those were the Levites by families. [31]They also cast lots—the head of each family and his younger brother alike—like their relatives the descendants of Aaron, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families among the priests and Levites. 1 Ch 24:24-31

Duties of Musicians

25:[1]David and the commanders of the army set apart some sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. Those who performed their service were as follows:

[2]from the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king;

[3]from the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah—6 were under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied by giving thanks and praising Yahveh;

4from the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.

5Those were sons of Heman the king's seer to honor him according to God's message, because God gave Heman 14 sons and 3 daughters.

6Those were under their father's direction to sing in Yahveh's Temple, with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service. 23But David didn't count the ones under 20 because Yahveh had said he would multiply Israel like the stars in the sky. 24Joab Ben-Zeruiah had started to count them but didn't finish. Wrath came on Israel because of it, and the number wasn't included in The Chronicles of King David.

David's Charge to Israel

28:1David gathered to Jerusalem the officials in Israel, the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders over thousands and hundreds, the overseers of the property and livestock that belong to the king and his sons, the officials and elite soldiers, all the brave warriors. 2He stood up and said,

> "My relatives, my people. I intended to build a permanent temple for the Ark of the Covenant and for a footstool of our God; so I made preparations. 3But he told me, 'You won't build me a temple; you're a soldier that's shed blood.'* 4But Yahveh chose me from my father's family to rule Israel permanently. He chose Judah to lead, chose my father's family in Judah, and delighted in me among my brothers.* 5From my sons he's chosen Solomon to sit on the throne. (Yahveh has given me many sons.)* 6He told me, 'Solomon will build my temple and courts. I've chosen him to be my son, and I'll be his father.* 7I'll make his kingdom permanently secure if he's resolute in keeping my commandments and ordinances, like he is today.'* 8In front of Israel, in the assembly of Yahveh, and in the hearing of our God, endeavor to follow all his commandments so you can keep the good land and leave it for your descendants.*

David's Charge to Solomon

> 9"Solomon, son, know your father's God. Serve him with all* your heart and a willing mind, because Yahveh examines every heart and understands every intent. 10Be diligent about that because he has chosen you to build a temple for the sanctuary. Have the courage to do it."* 1 Ch 28:1-10

11Then David gave Solomon

the plans for the vestibule, its buildings, storehouses, upper rooms, inner rooms, the room for the mercy seat;

12the plan for everything he had in mind—the courts, surrounding rooms, storehouses, and storehouses of dedicated things;

13*the layout* for the divisions of priests and Levites, the plans for the work of service,

the utensils for the service, 1 Ch 28:11-13

14the golden utensils, the weight of gold for them;

the silver utensils, the weight of silver for them;

15the weight of gold for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, the weight of each lampstand and its lamps;

the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, the weight of each lampstand and its lamps;

16the weight of gold for each table of showbread, and the silver for the silver tables; 17pure gold for the forks, basins, and pitchers, the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl, and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl; 18and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot for the cherubs that spread out their wings and cover the Ark of the Covenant.

19The details of this pattern he made clear in writing from Yahveh's hand. 1 Ch 28:14-19

20Then David told Solomon,

"Be strong and courageous; don't be afraid or intimidated. Yahveh's with you. He won't fail you or abandon you till the work is done. 21There are divisions of priests and Levites for serving in God's Temple, and every willing man with skill will be with you for all kinds of service. The officials and the people will be entirely at your command."* 1 Ch 28:20-21

Offerings for the Temple

29:1 David told the assembly,

"God alone has chosen Solomon. He's young and new to the work. It's an important undertaking; the Temple won't be for some mortal but for Yahveh God. 2I've provided as much* material as I could: gold, silver, bronze, iron, and wood—plus large amounts of onyx, gems for settings, antimony, colored stones, marble—all kinds of precious stones. 3In addition, I'm giving my own gold and silver:* 4113¼ tons 3,000 talents of gold from Ophir, 264¼ tons 7,000 talents of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the Temple, 5and the gold and silver items the craftsmen will make. Who will offer willingly, consecrating himself to Yahveh today?"*

1 Ch 29:1-5

6The heads of families made freewill offerings, as did the tribal leaders, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the officers over the king's work. 7They gave for the service of God's Temple 188¾ tons 5,000 talents of gold, 185 lbs 10,000 darics of gold, 377½ tons 10,000 talents of silver, 679½ tons 18,000 talents of brass, and 3775 tons 100,000 talents of iron. 8Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. 9The people celebrated because they had given willingly and offered freely with all their heart. David also celebrated greatly. 1 Ch 29:6-9

David's Prayer of Praise

10He blessed Yahveh in the presence of the assembly,

"You're blessed forever, Yahveh God of our ancestor Israel. 11You have the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty because* everything in the sky and on earth belongs to you. The kingdom belongs to you, the exalted head over everything. 12Wealth and honor come from you. Power and* strength are with you. Your control makes everyone great and strong. 13We thank* you and praise your glorious name.

14*"But who am I and what's my people that we can offer as willingly as* this? Everything comes from you, and what we've given you is from your own things. 15We're foreigners, nomads like our ancestors. Our time on earth is like a* shadow; it's not permanent. 16This abundance we've provided for building you a* Temple comes from you and belongs to you. 17I know you test the heart and are* delighted with godliness. With a godly heart I've freely offered everything and seen your people offering freely and joyfully. 18Yahveh God of Abraham, Isaac,* and Israel, always keep such purposes and thoughts in your people's hearts and direct their hearts to you. 19Give Solomon my son a whole heart for keeping your* commandments, testimonies, and statutes; and for accomplishing everything so he can build the Temple I've made provisions for." 1 Ch 29:10-19

Solomon Anointed as King

20Then David told the assembly, "Bless Yahveh your God." The whole assembly blessed Yahveh God of their ancestors. They bowed their heads in worship to him, and paid homage to the king. 21They sacrificed to Yahveh, and the next day offered burnt offerings—1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs with their liquid offerings, and abundant sacrifices for all Israel. 22They ate and drank in Yahveh's presence that day with great happiness.

They confirmed Solomon as king and anointed him as ruler for Yahveh and Zadok as priest. 23Solomon replaced David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him. 24The leaders, elite soldiers, and King David's sons pledged allegiance to him. 25Yahveh highly elevated him in front of Israel and placed such royal majesty on him as hasn't been on any other king in Israel.

The Death of David

26David ruled all Israel 27for 40 years, 7 in Hebron and for 33 in Jerusalem. 28He died at a good old age, full of wealth and honor, and Solomon reigned. 29The acts of King David, from first to last, are recorded in The Chronicles of Samuel the Seer, The Chronicles of Nathan the Prophet, and The Chronicles of Gad the Seer, 30with accounts of his rule and strength, and the circumstances that came on him, on Israel, and on the surrounding kingdoms. 1 Ch 29:20-30
