WOODEN 3 JOHN

1The Elder to-Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2Beloved, about all-things I-pray you to-be-prosperous and to-be-healthy, even-as the soul of-you prospers. 3For I-was┘ very └joyous, brothers coming and testifying to-the truth of-you, even-as you walk in truth. 4I-do┘ not └have greater joy in-order-that I-hear [the] my children walking in truth.

5Beloved[sg], you-act faithfully with-respect-to-whatever[2] you-work for the brothers and this (being for) strangers, 6who testified to-the love of-you before (the) church, whom you-will-do well sending┘ them └forward worthily of-[the] God. 7For on-behalf-of the Name, they-went-out, taking nothing from the Gentiles/heathen. 8Therefore we ought to-support [the] such-(men) in-order-that we-may-become fellow-workers in the truth.

9I-wrote something to-the church, but [the] loving-to-be-first of-them Diotrephes does┘ not └accept us. 10On-account-of this, if I-come, I-will-call-attention-to the works of-him that he-does, slandering us with-wicked words, and not being-satisfied over such-things, neither himself receives the brothers but prevents the-ones wanting (to receive them) and casts (them) out-of the church.

11Beloved[sg], do┘ not └imitate the evil-thing, but the good-thing. The-one doing-good is out-of [the] God. The-one doing-evil has┘ not └seen [the] God. 12Demetrius has-been-testified by all and the truth itself, and we also testify and know that the witness of-us is true.

13I-was-having many-things to-write to-you, but I-do┘ not └want to-write to-you through ink and reed-pen. 14But I-hope to-see you soon, and we-will-speak mouth to mouth. 15Peace to-you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.
